While making her baby steps in Hollywood as an actress, 7 year old Mila Brener continues with her modeling career, with a new campaign for the kids' collection of the LA-based clothing brand Gypsy05.

Here's a glimpse at the new campaign that was shot on Malibu Beach two weeks ago and is about to hit the billboards in the area. The Gypsy05 campaign follows Mila's past modeling jobs for WalMart, Esprit, Disney and Honda. Impressive.

Mila, daughter of Israeli actress and producer Shirly Brener, is not the only Israeli connection for this hip clothing brand, whose famous fans include Halle Berry, Denise Richards, Heidi Klum and hot teen sensation Ashley Benson ("Pretty Little Liars"). The brand is owned by Israeli brother and sister Ossi and Dotan Shoham, and previously featured another Israeli celebrity as their model, Sarai Givaty.

Mila's latest movie, 'The Time Being,' recently opened at the Toronto Film Festival, and features the 7-year-old alongside former Oscar nominee Frank Langella and actor Wes Bentley from the hit movie 'The Hanger Games.'
